Earlier in the year it had an ad banned for implying the interest rate was "irrelevant".. The ASA said any loan should be taken only after careful consideration and that firms flogging credit should advertise those products responsibly.. Cash Converters - which also offers longer-term loans and pawnbroking services - sent out a summer mailing with the offending message.. Last month Wonga was banned from using a TV advert that failed to tell borrowers of its 5,853 per cent annual interest rate. Materi Sbk Sd Kelas 5
