The film director rebuffs the film industry for not giving PDP leaders enough room for considering their nomination. Singer K.Balachandar has questioned the background and pedigree of the Congress' stand on the Karunanidhi duo. The singer said that he will start a movement to appoint unqualified people to political positions. "Since the party has given total freedom to everyone, we can ask for any post without having to think about the party's standpoint," he told The New Indian Express. He added that he had no affiliation with any political party. On Sunday, the Congress expelled AIADMK Leader T.T.V. Dinakaran and Two-Time Chief Minister O. Panneerselvam for supporting former deputy CM K.Anbazhagan, who has applied for the Pambakkam Assembly seat. The party described the two leaders as "traitors". Leaders like S.C.J.Philander, D. Jayakumar, G. Ramiah, R.K.S.Mayilvar, K.Chandrasekaran and N.O. Gokulan were also expelled, only after re-election to the Assembly on the DMK's quota. "No party has given such leeway to other leaders. Nobody is as informed as the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam. They have an in-built system, and they know the character of each leader."Transition of care: inter-facility communication for patients with multiple chronic conditions. The purpose of the study was to test the effectiveness of a worksite-based, technology-enabled program aimed at improving health outcomes in patients with multiple chronic conditions (MCC) through timely and successful transition of care between inpatient and outpatient providers. Informed consent was obtained from 40 members of a group purchasing organization in the Midwest. The pre-program and post-program evaluations took place over 2 years. The convenience sample of participants were employees in the employee benefits organization who were asked to participate in the study. The program consisted of four components: (1) consumer-driven self-assessments to determine use of effective, appropriate services, (2) integration of primary care services provided at the worksite, (3) a phone-based triage/communication system, and (4) referral of participants' health care needs to primary

In the aftermath of the Civil War, Bonnie and Clyde created a legend that went beyond the pages of pulp fiction. The Bonnie and Clyde legend, or the Bonnie and Clyde story, was a literary phenomenon that was neither fictional nor simply true. Within four years of their violent deaths, the Bonnie and Clyde legend had created a sensation that grew in the minds and imaginations of millions of people who had never even seen the alleged couple. THE BONNIE AND CLYDE LEGEND HENRY K. FEARING, Bonnie's half brother, claimed
